Pakistani who came to kill Nupur vandalised Lahore Ranjit Singh statue: Cops

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Jaipur: Sriganganagar police, investigating the case of Rizwan (24), who crossed the international border into India illegally in Sriganganagar, has found that the accused is also facing trial in his home country for vandalising Maharaja Ranjit Singh's statue at Lahore's Shahi Quila in August 2019.

Rizwan had told a joint interrogation committee comprising BSF, police, IB and Army personnel soon after his arrest on July 16 that he had come to India to kill suspended BJP spokesperson Nupur Sharma.

Officers interrogating him claimed the man appeared to have an "anti-Hindu psyche" and seemed selfradicalised as he claimed that whatever he has done so far was to save Islam.

On Thursday, interrogators came to know that Rizwan had vandalised a statue of Maharaja Ranjit Singh in Lahore. "He was arrested and is facing trial in Pakistan. He has not revealed how he was planning to reach closer to Sharma to kill her," Sriganganagar SP Anand Sharma said. "Currently he is on bail in the Pakistan case," he said.

The accused is to be produced in court on Saturday. Police are planning to seek extension of custody so that Rizwan can be jointly interrogated by various agencies.

https://www.deccanherald.com/national/west/bajrang-dal-workers-assault-muslim-youths-trying-to-enter-garba-venues-inahmedabad-1148961.html Justice and Empowerment of Minorities (JEM) is an initiative of Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind, the country's oldest and largest socio-cultural organisation of Indian Muslims.

JEM's mission is to safeguard the human rights of country's minorities while countering hate speech targeted against them. It endeavours to collect, collate and present cases of harassment, in any form, perpetrated against the minorities by right-wing elements. It's aim is to promote Rule of Law and access to justice, equal rights, citizen's security and human rights, in addition to defending and empowering religious minorities, marginalised and persecuted individuals, groups and communities through Advocacy.

JEM's aim is to empower and provide justice and judicial assistance to the victims of such crimes, which could be categorised under 'Hate Crimes'. It further aims to strengthen the constitutional edifice of the country, which guarantees the rights and dignity of minority groups, apart from helping to build a vibrant, thriving and affluent India.

JEM publishes four Quarterly Reviews and an Annual Review every year, highlighting the hate crimes against minorities, and additionally responding to marginalisation and persecution of minorities, in addition to ensuring implementation of equal rights, justice and peace, religious tolerance and coexistence in the country.
